Karl Rove
The White House

1 page via fax: 202-456-2461

Dear Mr. Rove:

From your frequent hunting trips to your bizarre little rap at the Radio and Television Correspondents' Association dinner ("I like to go home, get a drink, and tear the tops off of small animals"), it is clear that you lack the ability to empathize with other living beings. You consistently prove that you care less about animal welfare than Alberto Gonzales cares about habeas corpus.

The first thing that you plan to do when you leave the White House is to go dove hunting, i.e., kill little birds who are the international symbol of peace. You will leave politics to spend more time with your family only to destroy the families of other species.

I have just one suggestion: Please take Dick Cheney along on your hunting trips.

Very truly yours,

Ingrid E. Newkirk
President
